DuPage County Recorder's Internet Redaction Policy

On August 21, 2008 the Governor of the State of Illinois signed Public Act 095-0875 with an effective date of January 1, 2009. The Act is now codified as 55 ILCS 5/3-5047.

As mandated by 55 ILCS 5/3-5047, the DuPage County Recorder must submit a written policy, including a timeline, to the County Board providing for the redaction of social security numbers from all records displayed on the Recorder's Website.

The DuPage County Recorder has adopted a policy that, by the date of January 1, 2012, the Recorder's Office will have processed all documents that are viewable on the Recorder's Website for the automatic redaction of social security numbers. The Recorder currently provides the ability to manually redact social security numbers and verify this redaction. The DuPage County Recorder shall not be liable for any claims arising from unintentional or inadvertent violations of the Act.

Respectfully Submitted,
