The Internal Revenue Service offers taxpayers free help on federal tax questions and with filing a return. Assistance is available at any time on IRS.gov. Help is also available by telephone and in person.

IRS.gov

When seeking help online, the IRS cautions taxpayers to ensure they go to the authentic IRS website by typing www.IRS.gov into their browser. The official site does not end in .com, .net, .org or any designation other than .gov.

From the official IRS website, just click on "Español" for content in Spanish.

Taxpayers should check out 1040 Central for all the updates and information needed to prepare and file their 2012 returns, or to access forms and instructions

The Online Services section gives taxpayers access to handy applications, such as the following:

- Free File, a program available exclusively at IRS.gov in English and Spanish, offers brand-name tax software or online fillable forms. Everyone can find an option to prepare and e-file their tax returns for free. Taxpayers who earned $58,000 or less qualify for free software through a private-public partnership with manufacturers. Taxpayers who earned more or who are comfortable preparing their returns can use Free File Fillable Forms, the electronic versions of IRS paper forms.
- If you are a victim of Identity theft the IRS has a YouTube video you can watch on how they can help you protect your identity.
- Find an Authorized e-file Provider helps individual taxpayers find someone who can electronically file their tax return.
- EITC Assistant, available in English and Spanish, helps taxpayers find out if they are eligible for the Earned Income Tax Credit.

Interactive Tax Assistant guides taxpayers through a series of questions and provides responses on credits, deductions and general filing questions
